Synopsis

The Self within is your real nature, your true identity. Your original state of absolute peace and bliss. Every human being's mission in life is to discover the Self.

The spiritual path begins with an analysis and understanding on one's inner personality. The first stage of awakening is to develop the intellect to control the vagaries and demands of the mind. It is only through a properly functioning intellect one gains success, peace and harmony in life.

Beyond your body, mind and intellect lies your essential Self. Beyond the waking, dream and deep-sleep state of consciousness lies the pure unconditioned Consciousness. The three spiritual disciplines of Karma, Bhakti and Jnana Yoga is prescribed to eradicate one's desires that veil the Self.

Through a consistent, determined effort one realizes the Self within.
